Motion in Further Support to Amendment and Supplemental Pleading

Pro se Petitioner Kelvin J. Miles moves this court for "Motion in Further Support to Amendment and Supplemental Pleading," dated to this court on June 26, 2006 pertaining to the above captioned matter.

Petitioner states that his counselor Joseph Gibson entered his appearance for trial in the Circuit Court for Prince George's County on 4-16-80 and trial was had on 5-5-80. Said counselor did no investigation, interviewed none of the state witnesses or complainants before trial, said counsel was ineffective assistance of counsel. See attached motion to reopen post conviction and exhibits one and two and motion to alter or amend and exhibits one and two, and see cases cited in said motion. And Appellant Counsel Debra Hochman was ineffective assistance counsel for not investigating said trial and trial counsel.

Petitioner states that he was indicted on August 20, 1979 in CT 20768 and did not go to trial until May 5, 1980 over 120 days and over 180 days. See motion to reopen post conviction, alter or amend and exhibits and citations in said motions.

Wherefore, Petitioner has exhausted his state remedies and pray that a hearing is held in this matter.
